

Introduction
Line/s	Table/Figure	Stakeholder Comment	Author Response
23		"represent the earliest known retaliatory killings" just suggested to adding the bold part is just suggested to give more punch	No change made to the text - the proposed change would alter the meaning of the sentence
39-43		Brackets within brackets? The Minnie references, and think some rephrasing needed, maybe ...perverse outcomes, ie. earlier recruitment of jackals (Minnie etc), or distinctly positive biodiversity outcomes, ie. grazing pressure reprieve from livestock removal (eg. Minnie other reference)- just suggestion. These details will am sure be discussed later in other chapters.	No change made to the text - the current text is very clear and I do not see that the proposed change would improve the clarity or the meaning
66-67	Box	Livestock definition must be further defined, and perhaps excluding companion animals (which are also domesticated such as dogs, cats, and even horse), maybe specify ungulates?, while also consider defining the predators in some way - not sure if only mammalian, or other vetebrates, guess last chapter will only open up to other species.	No change made to the text - companion animals are excluded in the text as we specify "... for commercial purposes..." or in "free ranging conditions" and vulnerable to predation.
